Competition.

Handcrafted Beanie, made by the participant.
Beanies will be donated to a Toowoomba Charity.
Prizes will be awarded.

The James Byrne Centre's Dietary Information (as quoted from their information)

The Centre caters for special dietary requirements.

The Centre does not cater for lifestyle choices.

If special dietary requirements are necessary for a guest's wellbeing, the centre will meet such requirement but will require a doctor's or dietitian's certificate.

We believe that the menu selection, below, will give everyone a choice of food to eat at each meal.

Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner
Bacon, eggs, baked beans. Cereal and toast	Cold meats and salad	Roast Beef or Pork / Sweet potato wedges, roast pumpkin & peas. Fruit salad and ice cream

If you feel this would not suit you, and would like to bring your own food, give Diane or Betty a call to discuss this with them.
